

2017-10-05 | event note | Germany | feedstock

New nova Session â??Sustainability of first and second generation crops?•

The workshop will discuss the strength and weaknesses of all biomass feedstocks for biofuel and biomaterial production by criteria such as

- GHG footprint
- GHG abatement costs
- land use efficiency
- food security
- protein-rich co-products
- employment, rural development, livelihood of famers and foresters
- LUC / iLUC, logistic
- infrastructure availability
- social impacts
- water, air and soil quality

22 November 2017

10:00 - 16:30 h

Terminal 1, Airport Cologne/Bonn

Source: Nova Institute
More Information and Registration